

Joe Amaral

Joe Amaral is a Canadian bible teacher, author, and speaker who has gained a reputation for his ability to connect ancient biblical teachings to modern-day life.

He was born in Portugal and raised in Toronto, Canada. Amaral has spent over 20 years studying and researching the Bible, and he is known for his unique approach to teaching, which incorporates historical, cultural, and linguistic context to provide a deeper understanding of the text.

He has authored several books, including “UNDERSTANDING JESUS” and “JESUSLY”, both of which have received critical acclaim. Amaral has also appeared on numerous television and radio programs, including “100 HUNTLEY STREET, TBN, DAYSTAR, and the 700 CLUB”. He has spoken at conferences and events around the world, and his presentations are known for their engaging and dynamic style.

In addition to his work as a Bible teacher and author, Amaral is also a humanitarian who has dedicated himself to supporting charitable causes. He is the founder of Hope For Liberia, a non-profit organization that works to provide humanitarian aid to communities in Liberia.

Overall, Joe Amaral is a respected and influential figure in the Christian community, known for his deep understanding of the Bible and his ability to connect ancient teachings to modern-day life. His engaging and dynamic style has made him a popular speaker and commentator, and his commitment to humanitarian causes has earned him the respect and admiration of many.

Joe Amaral’s website - <https://joeamaral.org/>

 End ***